

Tear yourself free

from the burden of laborious manual delegations

RelianSys® is Australia's leading provider of up-to-date governance solutions for local government and other heavily regulated sectors.

HOW MANY OF THESE CHALLENGES ARE TRUE WITH YOUR DELEGATIONS?

Manual delegations causing mountains of paperwork riddled with errors

Manual changes to lengthy Word docs (hundreds of pages) leaving room for human error.

Legislative updates slow and complex

Multiple manual updates to delegation instruments taking valuable days, even weeks to complete.

Identifying provisions by position almost impossible

Printing a simple report with delegation provisions by position seems impossible.

Regular title changes frustrating and time-consuming

Regular title changes for new staff, internal movements or new responsibilities difficult to update.

Delegations information inaccessible

Delegations information in single document difficult to access by multiple stakeholders.

Unable to compare changes over time

No easy way to compare changes to delegations between years.

RelianSys Delegations transforms the way your Council manages delegations by...

Streamlining and simplifying your process

Taking your mountain of manual delegation instruments and simplifying them into one central streamlined solution.

Saving you huge amounts of time

Removing the burden of tasks that take you days or even weeks to perform, leaving simple tasks that take minutes – providing more time for your higher priorities.

Integrating legislative changes into internal content

Replace hours of manual copy and paste with a unique and powerful solution, integrating subscription-based legislative content with an automated approval process.

Reducing number of times and places for title changes

No longer will you need to make multiple manual changes in multiple documents.

Empowering delegation reports by position, comparing changes over time

Providing the ability to automatically organise and report on provisions by position, as well as easily compare delegations over time, with in-built track changes and version control.

Enabling access anywhere anytime

Being securely cloud-based, Delegations can be accessed by multiple people, from anywhere, at anytime, on any device.
