

Tear yourself free

from the burden of time consuming manual delegations

RelianSys® is Australia's leading provider of proven governance solutions. We compile the information so you don't have to. And put it into an easy to use Delegations program.

DO YOU FACE THESE CHALLENGES?

Manual delegations causing mountains of paperwork with risk of errors

Manual changes to lengthy Word docs leaving room for human error.

Legislative updates slow and complex

Multiple manual updates to delegation instruments taking valuable days, even weeks to complete.

Identifying provisions by position almost impossible

Printing a simple report with delegation provisions by position seems impossible.

Regular title changes frustrating and time consuming

Regular title changes for new staff, internal movements or new responsibilities make updates difficult.

Delegations information inaccessible

Delegations information in single document difficult to access by multiple stakeholders.

Unable to compare changes over time

No easy way to compare changes to delegations between updates.

RelianSys® Delegations software will transform the way you manage delegations by...

Streamlining and simplifying your process

Taking your various manual delegation instruments and transforming them into one central streamlined solution.

Saving you huge amounts of time

Removing the burden of tasks that take you days or even weeks to perform, managing delegations now takes minutes – providing more time for your higher priorities.

Integrating legislative changes into internal content

Replace hours of manual copy and paste with a unique and powerful solution, integrating subscription-based legislative content with an automated approval process.

Giving you the great functionality you've always wanted

Providing the ability to automatically organise and report on provisions by position, as well as easily compare delegations over time, with in-built track changes and version control.

Enabling access anywhere anytime

Being securely cloud-based, Delegations can be accessed by multiple people, from anywhere, at anytime, on any device.

Enabling you to be a more efficient manager

Simple and easy to setup and use, you'll be working more efficiently in no time at all.
